We have built our impeccable reputation for quality food and service since 1994.

The food we serve is a mixture of two distinct regions in Mexico. The south-central area; rich in vegetation and famous for fiery hot spices and savory "guisos" and the northeast which is arid and enjoys the staples of charcoal grilled steaks and succulent tacos.

We're committed to using original family recipes prepared with traditional cooking techniques: no substitutions, no shortcuts.

Our prices are always fair for our fresh, high quality foods, sanitary preparation, on-time delivery, generous portions and many extras. We are indisputably the area's finest catering and dining value.

Many of our clients are working with strict budgets; we are happy to suggest economical solutions without cutting corners.

Our client list includes large and small companies as well as individuals; all with one thing in common: demand for fine food and excellent service which we provide time and again to rave reviews.

Please call us today with questions or to schedule a consultation, or book your catering. Your event will be memorable and delicious.
